

Reclaiming Children and Youth

A Strength Based Workshop

for Professionals working with Children, Youth and Families

One day Workshop with Dr. Larry Brendtro
Presented by Catholic Family Services Saskatoon (CFS)

Wednesday, November 16, 2011

8:30 am—9:00 am registration
9:00 am—4:00 pm (lunch included)
Western Development Museum
2610 Lorne Ave. South, Saskatoon

About the Presenter:

Dr. Larry Brendtro is founder of the Circle of Courage Institute, Dean of the Starr Commonwealth Institute for Training, and former president of Starr Commonwealth serving troubled youth in Michigan and Ohio.

Dr. Brendtro is editor of the journal Reclaiming Children and Youth and with colleagues has authored twelve books and 200 articles on challenging youth.

This workshop will cover two approaches for reclaiming children and youth:

1. Deep Brain Learning: Pathways to Potential for Challenging Youth

- Dr. Brendtro taps into the growing body of research drawn from diverse disciplines to identify powerful universal principles for success with challenging children and youth.

2. Response Ability Pathways [RAP]

- RAP draws from emerging research about resilience, the brain, and positive psychology.
- RAP teaches practical strategies to connect with challenging youth, clarify problems, and restore bonds of respect.
- RAP puts the Circle of Courage model into practice so that young persons can take pathways to responsibility.
