

Reclaiming Children and Youth

A Strength Based Workshop for Professionals working with Children, Youth and Families

November 16, 2011
Time: 9:00am—4:00pm
(Lunch included)

Dr. Larry Brendtro

About the Presenter:

Dr. Larry Brendtro is founder of the Circle of Courage Institute, Dean of the Starr Commonwealth Institute for Training, and former president of Starr Commonwealth serving troubled youth in Michigan and Ohio.

Dr. Brendtro is editor of the journal Reclaiming Children and Youth and with colleagues has authored twelve books and 200 articles on challenging youth.

This workshop will cover two approaches for reclaiming children and youth:

1. Deep Brain Learning: Pathways to Potential for Challenging Youth

- Dr. Brendtro taps into the growing body of research drawn from diverse disciplines to identify powerful universal principles for success with challenging children and youth
- This session is based on his most recent book-

Deep Brain Learning: Pathways to Potential for Challenging Youth.

2. Response Ability Pathways [RAP]

- Developed in South Africa during the administration of Nelson Mandela; this universal training is now being delivered by a network of trainers in 13 nations
- RAP puts the Circle of Courage model into practice so that young persons can take pathways to responsibility.
- RAP draws from emerging research about resilience, the brain, and positive psychology.
- RAP teaches practical strategies to connect with challenging youth, clarify problems, and restore bonds of respect.
